BACKGROUND AND MISSION STATEMENT

The Hung Vuong Vietnamese Language and Culture School is a non-profit organization founded in 1986 with classes held at Houston Community College – Central Campus in Houston, Texas.

Our mission is to promote Vietnamese culture and heritage and help young people enrich their lives by getting the best of both American and Vietnamese cultures so that they can become successful and productive members of the society. Thus, our goal is to teach our children the Vietnamese language, its rich culture and heritage, work ethics and moral values.

Each semester the Hung Vuong Vietnamese Language and Culture School offers approximately 18 classes held every Sunday morning between 9 am and noon, with a student population of approximately 350 students ranging from 6 to 17 years of age and a faculty of about 40 volunteer teachers, with many hold advanced degrees. The students' tuition is minimal just to cover books, supplies and the cost of renting the facilities.

The Hung Vuong Vietnamese Language and Culture School has produced thousands of graduates who are fluent in the Vietnamese language and are knowledgeable about our history and culture. This has greatly benefited them when entering the work force and also in the process of assimilating in this country. Not only are they high achievers academically, but they have also made valuable contributions to the society in general, and to the Vietnamese community, specifically.

To this day, the Hung Vuong Vietnamese Language and Culture School has been, and still is, the oldest Vietnamese Language and Culture School in Houston with an impeccable reputation of having an excellent curriculum, a faculty of well qualified and experienced teachers, and devoted parents who provides our children with a high quality education.

The Hung Vuong Vietnamese Language and Culture School is an IRS 501(c)(3), federal tax-exempt non-profit organization. All donations are tax-deductible.
